Human Resources Report: Mr. Bickley indicated that the Committee reviewed personnel actions for the past month noting that there is very little activity this time of the year.

Summer Center programs will conclude next week. The Director of Hague Living Skills Center has resigned and the former director, Joyce Kirby is helping temporarily. Dot Yeager was congratulated on her promotion to Chief Business Officer, effective July 29, 2013.

Adult Services will have their staff development day on August 2.

SUPERINTENDENT REPORT

- Our Summer Center programs are almost complete. Staff have done an excellent job. School and Early Childhood programs will resume on the week of August 19.

- Our Adult Services staff will have a staff development day on August 2 at Xenos.

- A fundraiser was held last week at the Texas roadhouse Restaurant to raise funds for self-advocates to help with registration fees for an upcoming conference for self-advocates.

- CARF (Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities) surveyors will be here in September to conduct a CARF survey. We hope to renew our certification, which indicates best practice and meeting quality standards.

- After CARF, we will also be reviewed by DODD in January for our accreditation renewal with the state.

- Teresa Kobelt, Dot Yeager and Marcy Samuel attended a meeting with city officials in Gahanna last week to further discuss Sunapple Gardens. We continue to move forward with our planning.

- We have sent a letter to Kevin Miller, Director of the Rehabilitation Services Commission (RSC) (soon to be named Opportunities for Ohioans Disability Agency) to request that RSC reinstate our Lifeworks initiative with Goodwill Columbus. We could budget up to $200,000 for this to add to our employment options.

- Last week I attended the Career Camp graduation at Mifflin High School. This is an excellent summer career exploration program for teens that we started in 1992 with RSC and Columbus Schools. All participants this year earned minimum wage and explored different jobs throughout the summer. Special credit was given to Laurie Green-Lauber and Kurt Schmitter for their leadership to keep this program moving forward.

- We recently completed good meetings with each of our Commissioners, Auditor Mingo and the Columbus Dispatch Editorial Board. We provided updates on our agency services and budget.
- We also recently met with Treasurer Leonard to discuss the Land Bank he oversees. His staff will be in touch with Pat Rafter, CEO of Creative Housing to see if there are partnering opportunities.

- We will not have a regular meeting in August, however we will conduct a brief Special meeting on August 26 at Noon to request Board approval of bids.
