

Dean Fadel takes helm at OACB

For the first time since its creation in 1983, the statewide organization of county boards of developmental disabilities has chosen a Franklin Countian as its leader.

Dean Fadel was elected President of the Board of Trustees of the Ohio Association of County Boards Serving People with Developmental Disabilities (OACB) on January 29th.

He is Vice-President of the Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities, of which he has been a member since 2007. He is also the brother of Jeffrey Fadel, a service recipient.

Mr. Fadel sees the state's fiscal situation as the top challenge in the months ahead, and notes the need for cooperation among all elements of the service system.

"It will be vital for our community to be as united as ever while the state is facing a potential deficit in the range of 4 to 9 billion dollars in 2011."

Mr. Fadel is a principal with Public Affairs Advocates and Vice-President for Government Relations of the Ohio Insurance Institute. A resident of Blacklick, he is an active volunteer with Next Chapter Book Clubs.

Spanish version of agency video released

Miguel Salas narrates at Mills James Studios.

In an effort to reach out to the county's growing Hispanic community, FCBDD has released its first Spanish-language version of the agency's video guide to services.

Both the Spanish version and its English counterpart are available on the agency's web site at www.fcbdd.org.

Among other changes "the board" has become "la junta," and "persons with developmental disabilities" are "personas con discapacidad del desarrollo" in the Spanish script.

"This is just one more effort to serve eligible individuals regardless of any language barrier," said Miguel Salas, Supervisor with the Service Coordination Department. He provided the narration for the video.

FCBDD's service brochure is available in eight languages besides English. They are: Cambodian, Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Laotian, Spanish, Somalian and Vietnamese.

Franklin County's Hispanic population doubled from 1990 to 2000 according to census data.

Service Coordination gets new home

FCBDD's Service Coordination Department relocated from 350 East Broad Street to 1600 Watermark Drive over the Presidents Day weekend. The new offices are in northwest Columbus near the Grandview Avenue exit off I-670.

The department had been in leased offices at the East Broad location since 1988. Space limitations there prompted the move.

"Even though we occupied the entire building, we were cramped," said Jack Beatty, Director of Service Coordination.

Agency leaders looked at various options over a 2-year period before settling on the Watermark site. The 3-story, 44,000 square foot building was mostly vacant.

"It was a very functional space in a convenient location and available at an attractive price," said Dot Yeager, Chief Financial Officer.

The county bought the property for $2.5 million. Its market value is $4.1 million according to the Franklin County Auditor's Office.

FCBDD will not pay any rent for the building as it is county-owned. The resulting savings are expected to cover the purchase price in less than 8 years.

Director Beatty praised department staff for continuing their work without disruption during the move. "They haven't missed a beat," he said.

DD theme stresses commonality

People with developmental disabilities are much the same as everyone else. Yet too often, common attributes seem to get lost among perceived differences. To help change this mindset, sponsors of DD Awareness Month have selected "Just like you" as the theme this year.

The statewide kickoff celebration will be held Thursday, March 4th, from 10 a.m. to noon. The site will be the Statehouse Atrium. All are welcome to attend.

FCBDD will recognize DD Awareness Month in various ways. The Early Childhood Education and Family Center will present a Health and Wellness Resource Fair on Wednesday, March 10th, from 11 a.m. to 1:15 p.m. Representatives will be on hand from the American Cancer Society, Columbus Health Department, Local Matters and the Nisonger Center, among others.

Northeast School will hold its traditional Spaghetti Dinner on Saturday, March 20th, from 4 to 8 p.m. Dinners will be available on either a dine-in or take-out basis. For more information, call 614-476-0530.

“For the fun of it” was fun!

Over 200 FCBDD staff took part in the fifth annual “For the fun of it” bowling event held at Columbus Square Bowling Palace on Saturday, January 30th.

Mimi Livisey of Transportation won the top female series with a score of 497. Rod Frye of Employment Services took the high male series honors with a score of 624.

The top team series award went to Jack Stockley, Jeff Wisecarver, Joey Wallake and Randy Cuenot, who totaled 2,408 pins. The team of Tiffany Anderson, Charbeth Cooke, Carolyn Evans and Angela Singh was recognized for good effort.

Anna Srba of ARC Industries East won the grand door prize.

According to event coordinator Jack Brownley, over $4,200 was raised for Special Olympics and the Citizens Committee. “More importantly, the event helped promote a positive spirit within the agency as so many people got together and had a great time.”

Operation Feed provides food for needy families in central Ohio. Since early February, FCBDD staff have been busy collecting food and funds to support this worthy cause.

Your help is needed now to combat hunger among the most vulnerable members of the central Ohio community. Of those aided by Operation Feed last year, 40% were children and 10% were senior citizens.

Won't you please lend your support by donating canned or boxed foods items, or providing a check payable to "Operation Feed" at your favorite FCBDD location?

The green spot

(Note: As reported in our January issue, FCBDD is now a member of Columbus Greenspot, and as such, is committed to helping make our city a greener community. We are pleased to present here the first in a series of regular updates regarding these activities.)

FCBDD has joined with over 1,500 businesses and groups who have pledged to help make Columbus a greener community.

As a condition of membership, FCBDD committed to taking a number of steps, including creating and displaying an environmental policy or mission statement; measuring its compliance with health, safety and environmental regulations; and performing a waste audit, among many others.

Each FCBDD location has received a green spot decal and My GreenSpot Pledge to display prominently in their building, along with a list of mandatory commitments we have already accomplished or will undertake in the next year.

At its meeting on February 18th, the Board recognized Nick Gulyassy for his leadership of the agency's environmental efforts. "Nick leads a very energetic and able team of staff who are doing a great job," said Superintendent Jed Morison.

Good For You

Notable achievements in the FCBDD community

Miguel Salas of Service Coordination and Eric Thompson of Northeast School represented FCBDD at the annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Birthday Breakfast Celebration, which was held at the Greater Columbus Convention Center on January 18th. The event drew over 8,000 people to celebrate the life and legacy of Dr. King.

FCBDD programs have helped inspire new developmental disabilities services in the nation of Georgia. According to a report from the Columbus International Program, Lika Kiladre, who visited FCBDD facilities in Spring, 2008, was fascinated by the service models here, and has opened similar programs. "This is the first time we have had such centers in the Imereti region," she said.

Staff members of Hague Living Skills Center and Columbus Developmental Center joined forces to raise funds for relief of the earthquake victims in Haiti last month. Through the sale of lunches and baked goods, they raised $512. Special thanks to Bridget Alcaraz of Hague for her tasty treats!

Boulevard Presbyterian Church in Grandview is in the forefront of faith communities stepping up to help the poor. Jim Oyer, a job developer with the Employment Services Department, and a volunteer with the church, helped assemble over 300 gift packages for needy families recently.

Service Coordination staff found a great way to express their appreciation to Chief Financial Officer Dot Yeager for her yeoman's service in connection with the department's move to new offices on Watermark Drive. As she toured the facility on February 16th, Dot was surprised to see a large, colorful banner on display, saying "Thanks Dot!" Others receiving special thanks included Mike Boyce, Rick Grawemeyer, Jennifer Schueneman and Jerry Rose.
