

Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities

'Helping people to live, learn and work in community'

NewsBits

Dispatch Editorial

The Columbus Dispatch printed an editorial on March 11 related to a Pilot Project involving multi-system youth. It explains how Franklin county public agencies are working together to support youth who otherwise may need placement out of the county or state. To read the complete editorial, click the link below:

<http://www.dispatch.com/opinion/20170311/editorial-safety-found-closer-to-home>

Movement and Play Workshop

The Franklin County Board of DD Early Childhood Department and VSA Ohio invite families to a movement and play workshop titled "The Art of Listening: a conversation without words". The event will be at the Urban Arts Space, 50 West Town Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215 on Saturday, April 1 from 11 am to 1pm. Families will be able to explore how materials affect the way we move and will see video projections and sources of light create an environment for play and discovery.

