

Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities

'Helping people to live, learn and work in our community'

Assistive Technology

An Assistive Technology Fair will be held at OCALI, 470 Glenmont Ave., Columbus, 43214 on Thursday, April 23 from 9am to 3pm. For details, call OCALI at 866-886-2254.

There will also be an Assistive Technology Conference on May 13-14, 2015 titled 'Tech II-Technology Toward Employment'. It will be held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Columbus. Assistive technology that helps people with disabilities get jobs will be the focus. For details, call 614-892-0390.

FCBDD Recognized for Support of Staff in Military

The Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities will be recognized on April 18 for support of staff who are in the military. The Board will receive the 'Above and Beyond' award at an event sponsored by the Department of Defense. Congratulations to Pete Cox, staff member with our Employment Services Department, who will represent FCBDD at the event. Pete served in Afghanistan with the National Guard.

Allison Skinner To Be Recognized

Allison Skinner, Service Coordinator will be recognized by The Ohio State University School of Social Work on April 24 for her excellent work with graduate MSW students in their internship with the Service Coordination Department.

ECE Earth Day

The Early Childhood Department will celebrate Earth Day on Saturday, April 18 with children, families, staff and volunteers assisting to prepare our outdoor environments. Activities will take place at our Early Childhood Learning Community (ECLC), 4141 Rudy Road and the Early Childhood Center, 2879 Johnstown Road, from 10am to Noon.

Chris Clarkson Published

The Catholic Times has published an article written by Chris Clarkson, titled 'Living with Asperger's Syndrome. Congratulations to Chris.

Classes Resume on April 13

Early Childhood and School classes at FCBDD facilities will resume on Monday, April 13 following Spring Break.

Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities | (614) 475-6440

newsbits@fcbdd.org | www.fcbdd.org

2879 Johnstown Road, Columbus, OH 43219