Hague Avenue Building

Plans are continuing for the relocation of the Hague Living Skills Center and Goodwill Work and Community Services programs in response to the County's desire to utilize the Hague Avenue building for the Sheriff's Department. The Board will consider the following recommendation in their May 14 meeting (5:00pm at 2879 Johnstown Road):

- Relocate the Living Skill Center services from Hague Avenue to Northeast on Hamilton Road in Gahanna
- Relocate Goodwill Work and Community Services to ARC South on Marketing Place Road in Groveport
- Commit to relocate both programs by January 1, 2016

Comments or suggestions regarding this proposal should be directed to Bob Gaston, Director of Adult Services at bob.gaston@fcbdd.org (342-5744) or Linda Monroe, Director of Living Skills Centers at linda.monroe@fcbdd.org (342-5202) or Jed Morison, Superintendent at jed.morison@fcbdd.org (342-5950). There will be a public meeting to discuss the proposal and seek feedback on Monday, May 11th at 4:00pm at 2879 Johnstown Road.
