Adam Helbling Presents to Staff

Adam Helbling, motivational speaker and author, recently spoke to several FCBDD staff about his incredible journey through college and his experiences with bipolar disorder and his car accident that left him quadriplegic. If interested in reading Adam's book of his true story, the FCBDD library has some copies that can be borrowed by contacting Cindy Massenelli at 614-342-5954.

Self Advocate Advisory Council to Meet on June 11

The FCBDD Self Advocate Advisory Council will meet on Thursday, June 11 at 10am. Council members will meet with Superintendent Morison to hear updates and to provide suggestions and make plans for the future. The meeting will be held at 2879 Johnstown Road.

West Central School Theft

Three young men broke into West Central School on Monday morning at about 2:00am and took two computers and four monitors. Because the computers are connected directly to the FCBDD Server, the computers do not have hard drives so no confidential information was compromised. Police and news media have video of the individuals and will accept any tips leading to their arrest.
