Confidential/Encrypted Email

In an effort to protect confidential information in emails, as required by HIPPA (Health Information Portability and Accountability Act), certain emails, sent from FCBDD staff to individuals who are not FCBDD staff, are encrypted. This means that the recipients of these emails will need to click on a link and enter a password to receive the confidential email. This will not apply to all emails--only those which include confidential personal information. Instructions will be sent when an email is encrypted.
