Ohio DODD Director Announces Retirement

Jeff Davis, Director of the Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities (DODD), has announced that he will retire, effective on December 31, 2021. Governor DeWine has appointed Kim Hauck, Deputy Director of DODD to replace Director Davis.

We extend our thanks and best wishes on a well deserved retirement to Director Davis for his many years of leadership. And, our good wishes are also extended to Kim Hauck, who has provided excellent leadership at the state and in the field for many years. Both leaders have positively impacted the lives of many Ohioans who have developmental disabilities and their families and staff.
